Safety and security of students, faculty, and staff are of utmost importance.

Shared Responsibility

Everyone must remain vigilant and report suspicious activities or crimes promptly.

Safe Environment

ATI is dedicated to ensuring a safe experience for all.

Campus Security Policy

Student Expectations

Respect

ATI is committed to respecting students' dignity and integrity.

Rules

Students are expected to follow necessary rules and regulations.

Order

The University maintains order and can exclude disruptive individuals.

Title IX- Sexual Misconduct Policy

ATI is committed to providing a teaching, learning, and working environment that is free from sexual harassment and sexual misconduct.

What is Title IX?

Office for Civil Rights

"No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance."

Sexual Harassment and Sexual Misconduct Policy

- This policy prohibits sexual harassment and sexual misconduct ("Prohibited Conduct") on University property and in all University programs and activities.
- All participants in University programs and activities are responsible for helping to ensure our University community is kept free of Prohibited Contact
- Individuals who are subjected to Prohibited Conduct in violation of this policy are encouraged to report these incidents.
- This policy applies to all members of the University community including, but not limited to, students, employees, interns, contractors and vendors (including their employees), guests and visitors while they are on University property or participating in University programs and activities.

Definitions under the Clery Act

Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Violence Against Women Act (VAWA). Federal law enacted in 1994, which promotes the investigation and prosecution of violent crimes against women, among other objectives. Recently, it amended the Clery Act [42 U.S.C. §§ 13701-14040], through the Campus Sexual Violence Elimination Act (SaVE) provision, Section 304.

Clery Act Definition of Sexual Assault The Clery Act defines sexual assault as a forcible or nonforcible offense under the uniform crime reporting system of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

NIBRS Definitions

This system includes the National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS), which defines forcible sex offenses to include any sexual act, including rape, sodomy, sexual assault with an object, or fondling "directed against another person, without the consent of the victim including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent." NIBRS also includes incest and statutory rape as "nonforcible" sex offenses.

Definitions under VAWA

(Violence Against Women Act)

Dating Violence

Dating violence includes violence committed by a person who has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the complainant; the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Domestic Violence

Domestic violence includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by: a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the complainant, a person with whom the complainant shares a child, a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the complainant as a spouse or intimate partner, a person similarly situated to a spouse of the complainant under the jurisdiction's domestic or family violence laws, or any other person against a complainant who is protected under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.

Stalking

Stalking is defined as engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for their own safety or the safety of others or to suffer substantial emotional distress. This also includes instances of stalking based on sex-including stalking that occurs online or through messaging platforms, commonly known as cyber-stalking-when it occurs in the school's education program or activity.

Scope of Title IX

Title IX applies to schools, local and state educational agencies, and other institutions that receive federal financial assistance from the Department Key Issue Areas

Some key issue areas in which recipients have Title IX obligations are: recruitment, admissions, and counseling; financial assistance; athletics; sex-based harassment, which encompasses sexual assault and other forms of sexual violence; treatment of pregnant and parenting students; treatment of LGBTQI+ students; discipline; single-sex education; and employment.

Protection Against Retaliation

No recipient or other person may intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX or its implementing regulations, or because the individual has made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in a proceeding under Title IX.

Violation and Regulations

For a recipient to retaliate in any way is considered a violation of Title IX. The Department's Title IX regulations (Volume 34, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 106) provide additional information about the forms of discrimination prohibited by Title IX.

LGBTQI+ Students

Equal Access

The mission of the U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights (OCR) is to ensure equal access to education and to promote educational excellence through vigorous enforcement of civil rights in our nation's schools.

- To serve this mission, OCR enforces civil rights laws to protect all students from unlawful discrimination and harassment based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, and age.
- This includes students who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, questioning, asexual, intersex, nonbinary, and individuals who identify their sexual orientation or gender identity in other ways (LGBTQI+).

Protection from Discrimination

- Bullying, harassment, exclusion from school activities, and other forms of discrimination can interfere with LGBTQI+ students' access to a safe and inclusive school environment.
- Federal law requires schools to ensure that LGBTQI+ students and other students have equal access to all aspects of a school's programs and activities.

O: What is Sexual Harassment

A: Sexual harassment is conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

Sexual assault

Any unwelcome sexual conduct, such as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature

Stalking

Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for their own safety or the safety of others or to suffer substantial emotional distress. This includes stalking based on sex-including stalking that occurs online or through messaging platforms, commonly known as cyber-stalking-when it occurs in the school's education program or activity.

Quid pro quo harassment

A school employee offers something to an individual in exchange for sexual conduct

Dating violence

Violence committed by a person who has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the complainant; the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on consideration of the length of a relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. Hostile environment harassment

A situation of discriminatory or sexual nature that has occurred and created an adverse setting. An intimidating or offensive environment that causes a person to be fearful

Domestic violence

Violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the complainant, a person with whom the complainant shares a child, a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the complainant as a spouse or intimate partner, a person similarly situated to a spouse of the complainant under the jurisdiction's domestic or family violence laws, or any other person against a complainant who is protected under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction

Reporting

- Report to Title IX Coordinator

 Violations of this Policy should be reported to the Title IX Coordinator.

Overseeing implementation of grievance

Education and Training

Ensuring the campus community and university employees are adequately trained and educated on their Title IX compliance responsibilities; and

Investigatory and Disciplinary Procedures

For purposes of this policy, a Complainant is any individual who is reported to have been subjected to Prohibited Conduct and a Respondent is a person who is accused of violating this policy. Complainants and respondents will be treated equitably.

- Upon receipt of a formal complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will assess for a possible Title IX violation. If a possible violation is found, written notification will be provided to both the complainant and respondent which contains the allegations and facts, details on the formal grievance process (investigation and live hearing), details on the informal resolution process (if an option), a statement that the parties can request to inspect and review certain evidence, and information regarding the code of conduct, presumption of innocence and false statements.
- Efforts will be made to ensure confidentiality to the extent practical consistent with the goals of preventing further instances of the alleged Prohibited Conduct and conducting a fair and thorough investigation.
- If a possible violation of Title IX is not found, if the Complainant notifies the Title IX Coordinator in writing that he/she wishes to withdraw the complaint or if the respondent is no longer employed by the University, both parties will be sent written notice which includes the reason for the dismissal and the right to appeal.

Please note that this policy sets forth our goals of promoting a teaching, learning and work environment that is free of Prohibited Conduct. The policy is not designed or intended to limit the University's authority to discipline or take remedial action for conduct the University deems unacceptable, regardless of whether that conduct meets the definition of Prohibited Conduct.

In multi-story locations, use stairwells, not elevators. Students should not re-enter the building until told to do so by an ATI official.

Evacuation and Lockdown Plan

- Comprehensive Plan

 ATI has a detailed Evacuation and Lockdown Plan.
- 2 Safety Steps
 The plan outlines steps for campus management, students, visitors, and employees.
- 3 Accessibility

 The full plan is available online for review.

Bomb Threat Procedure

1 2

Keep Caller on Line

Keep the caller talking and record every word spoken. Inform the caller that the building is occupied and detonation of a bomb could result in death or serious injury to many innocent people.

Gather Information

Ask for bomb location, detonation time, and note caller's voice characteristics. Pay particular attention to peculiar background noises such as motor running, background music, and any other noise, which may give a clue as to the location of the caller.

Report Immediately

3

Inform Campus President or University Administration without delay.

Reporting Suspicious Activities

When to Report

Whenever you observe suspicious events, even though you may not be the only person observing them, contact the Campus President or University Administration.

Better Safe Than Sorry

Never think that the next person will do what you should do. Often we fail to call because we are not sure if what we see is suspicious. If you are in doubt, contact the Campus President or University Administration promptly. Don't wait to talk it over with fellow students or other staff/faculty.

Identifying Suspicious Activities

Unusual Property Movement

Someone carrying valuable items at odd hours or locations.

Suspicious Sounds

The sound of shattering glass or tampering with vehicles.

Loitering

Persons loitering around school or parking areas.

Crime Prevention Strategies

Education

Educating staff, faculty, and students about safety measures.

Information Sharing

Holding meetings and disseminating important safety information.

Security Systems

Implementing security systems and surveillance equipment on campus.

Student Safety Responsibilities

Secure Doors

Never prop open exterior doors and always lock your room.

Verify Visitors

Check a visitor's identity before allowing access.

Key Safety

Carry keys at all times and never lend them out.

Buddy System

Use the buddy system when walking to your car at night.

Emergency Situation

In an emergency, call 911 immediately.

Report to Authorities

2 Contact the local police department's Sex Crimes Unit.

Inform University

Report the incident to the Campus President or University Administration.

Guidance for Rape Victims

- Immediate Help
 Seek help immediately from police, friend, doctor, hospital, or crisis program.
- Preserve Evidence
 Do not touch anything or change clothes before contacting authorities.
- Report Incident

 Contact police or go to the hospital to preserve valuable evidence.
